

TESTIMONY OF JESSICA COLLINS

Re: Explanation of California Court Records (2006–2012)

I, Jessica Collins, respectfully submit this sworn statement to clarify the circumstances surrounding a 2006 criminal case in California.

1. Background and Stressful Circumstances

In 2006, I was under severe personal stress. I had fled Maryland to California in an attempt to escape another person who was trying to take control of my life. At the time, I was under emotional and psychological pressure that deeply affected my judgment and stability.

2. Charges

On July 18, 2006, in Orange County, California (Case No. 06SF0680), I was charged with:

- Driving Under the Influence Causing Injury (Vehicle Code §§ 23153(a), 23153(b)) – Felonies.
- Resisting or Obstructing an Officer (Penal Code §148(a)(1)) – Misdemeanor.
- Vandalism Under $400 (Penal Code §594) – Misdemeanor.

3. Context of the Offense

The incident took place during a period of turmoil and instability. The DUI became a felony because an accident occurred and another person was injured. The charge of resisting was connected to my distressed state at the time of arrest, and the vandalism was tied to minor property damage in the same episode.

These events were not the result of a lifestyle or pattern of criminal behavior, but rather the result of a single crisis situation during an extremely stressful and destabilizing period of my life.

4. Plea and Sentencing

In 2007, after legal counsel, I pled guilty. My sentence included:

- 3 years of informal probation.
- 30 days in jail (10 days credited as time served).
- Restitution payments.
- Completion of a First Offender Alcohol Program.
- Payment of fines and fees.

5. Completion and Rehabilitation

I complied with all probation terms, completed the alcohol education program, paid restitution, and fulfilled every court requirement. Probation concluded successfully in July 2012. I have not repeated such conduct.

6. Conclusion

This case reflects a single incident that occurred at a moment when I was fleeing a coercive situation in Maryland and facing overwhelming stress. I regret the harm caused, but I have learned from the experience, completed all court-ordered rehabilitation, and rebuilt my life since.
