Marga,

I want to address this in a constructive way so that we can continue working cooperatively. On November 28, I informed you that the acceptance message on my phone was sent by Kenny, not by me. Later that same day you wrote that "the steps taken were based on the information and instructions you provided." This made me think the message was still being treated as if it came from me, even though by that point you had already been informed that it came from Kenny De Schrijver.

This morning you wrote that you "cannot comment" on the interference caused by Kenny, including the messages he sent from my phone. Now that you know the acceptance message did not come from me, I need to understand why you believe it should be treated as if it were sent by me.

This morning, you also stated that the assaults, intimidation, and interference I reported by Kenny De Schrijver "do not fall within the legal framework" of your representation.

I need to ask for clarity on how and why under Dutch protection and trafficking standards, coercion, intimidation, interference with communication, and control over a person's ability to seek help in an asylum/ protection case based on trafficking are not acknowledged as part of the legal framework for assessing danger, exploitation, and the need for protection. These factors are recognized indicators of coercive control and trafficking under the BES criminal code and within the protection procedure.

Kenny De Schrijver's conduct, including sending messages from my phone, interfering with my communication with counsel and journalist, using violent intimidation, and bringing me here under false pretenses, fits within these criteria. It is known to all involved that I am actively seeking protection from trafficking in Bonaire because I was trafficked in the United States by government officials for decades of my life. Because of this, I need to understand the legal basis for your position that these events have no relevance to my protection claim, as Kenny De Schrijver's actions appear to meet multiple indicators of trafficking under Dutch law.

This situation is especially concerning because I have been fighting trafficking in the United States for decades and came to Bonaire to seek protection from that danger. The recent assaults and interference I experienced here have not been addressed in the procedure so far, and the police report documenting those events has not yet been finalized. These ongoing issues increase my concern about safety and the fairness of the process, which is why I need clarity on how these events are being treated in my protection case.

Kind regards,
jessica leigh collins

Dear Ms. Collins,

I acknowledge receipt of your message and the information you have provided. First, I would like to clarify that I am your attorney solely in your IND procedure regarding your request for protection in connection with events that allegedly took place in the United States. The incidents you now describe from October and November do not form part of the grounds on which your protection request to the IND was based, nor do they fall within the scope of the appeal currently pending. These developments therefore do not fall within the legal framework of your immigration case and will not be included in the IND file or in the appeal.

I have read your police statement. I cannot comment substantively on the events you describe because I was not present. I can only confirm that during our meeting I observed one bruise, and I did not observe other injuries.

Regarding your question about which communications or decisions may have been affected by Mr. De Schrijver's interference: I am unable to determine this, nor can I issue any judgment about it. The case has been presented accurately and exclusively on the basis of your documents and your consent.

The incidents you describe fall under criminal law. Filing a police report and pursuing any criminal-law remedies lies outside the scope of the immigration work for which I was retained. As agreed, my assignment and the corresponding fee for which I was retained. As agreed, my assignment and the corresponding fee concern the IND procedure only; no additional or different work is included under that agreement.

You indicated that you were considering engaging another attorney. If you no longer wish to continue our cooperation, this is possible. I can notify the court of the termination of representation if you instruct me to do so.

Finally, please inform me which means of communication are safe for you, so that we can correspond securely and effectively.

Regards,

mr. Marga M. A. van Lieshout

Urgent Clarification Required Regarding Representation and Interference in My Case

Dear Maroia

Dear Judge,

I am providing information that is necessary for you to act in my protection case accurately and transparently.

I delivered a written Statement of Assaults by Kenny de Schrijver to Esmeralda Cilicia on November 27, 2025, and I provided the same statement in person to the Bonaire police on November 28, 2025. The attached document contains the complete description of the violence, threats, and interference that occurred throughout October and November, including the incidents that took place during your appointments with me.

During this period, you personally observed bruises and injuries on my body when Kenny was present. I was unable to answer your questions honestly because Kenny remained inside your office and monitored the conversation. His presence and ongoing assaults prevented me from communicating freely or independently.

Each time I attempted to contact or question an attorney or a journalist regarding my case, Kenny assaulted me. He also controlled my phone, including sending messages to you from my device without my consent, such as messages agreeing to proceed without postponement. Those messages did not represent my decisions or instructions.

The Bonaire police informed me that they would prepare the report based on the statement I provided, but that it will not be officially filed until they contact me again to sign it.

Additionally, there are WhatsApp messages from Kenny de Schrijver in which he acknowledged the assaults and his interference with my ability to communicate. I will provide these to you upon your request so they may be included in the case file.

Because these events occurred during the period in which key decisions were being made in my procedure, it is necessary to clarify that I did not have free communication, free movement, or the ability to review filings or give proper instructions. These conditions directly affected the legal process.

I am requesting confirmation of the following:

1. That you will review the attached Statement of Facts and include the relevant information in the case file, including how coercion, intimidation, and physical violence limited my ability to communicate.
2. That you will confirm which communications or decisions may have been affected by Kenny's interference, including messages he sent from my phone.
3. That you will confirm whether the court has been informed of these circumstances.
4. That you will outline what steps you will now take to correct the record so that my case is presented accurately.

This message provides the factual documentation needed for clarity, and I am asking for your confirmation and plan of action.

Dear Ms. Jessica,

~~This is an automated email. Please do not respond to this email.~~

I thank you for your message. I would like to respond with clarity and respect, as effective cooperation requires calm and constructive communication from both sides.

I must note that the tone of your recent message makes it difficult for me to assist you properly. My intention is always to support you to the best of my professional ability, and for that, we need to maintain a professional and respectful dialogue.

If you feel that you no longer wish for me to represent you, or if you no longer stand behind the arrangements and understandings we previously discussed, then it may be appropriate for us to reconsider our cooperation. Of course, I remain available to assist you should you wish to continue.

I also wish to recall that you previously indicated to me that Kenny's presence was important for you at that time, and the steps taken were based on the information and instructions you provided.

My goal is to restore clarity and ensure that we can work together in a way that feels safe, transparent, and effective for you. If you would like to continue our collaboration, I kindly ask that we return to a constructive tone so that I can provide the support you need.

Regards,

mr. Marga M. A. van Lieshout

Marga,

Contact the Court today and obtain the login credentials for my case files so I can review exactly what has been filed in cases BON202500558 and BON202500561. Send these to me today.

I also need the stamped Court copies of Productie 8 and Productie 9 exactly as you submitted them, including the date and time of filing. I have asked you for these repeatedly, and I still have not received them.

For accuracy and clarity in the record, I am stating the following. You and Kenny pressured me not to pursue the postponement, even though the two-month advance was accepted on my behalf without my consent. Afterward, Kenny sent an email from my account telling you it was acceptable to proceed with December 9, even though you knew I did not agree to that date. During our meeting, you asked me about the bruises Kenny caused while he was standing in front of you, and his presence prevented me from answering truthfully. These circumstances directly interfered with my ability to file my own documents and to communicate freely with you.

I need full transparency regarding what you filed, when you filed it, and why the stamped copies and access have not been provided.

Dear Jessica,

The digital portal is for the lawyers/court to access not the clients in person.

Apart from that I have yet to receive my inlog information. I have requested this to the court. I will inform you once I have received such.
